

Reach Higher

Healthcare Management careers are expected to increase by 18% through 2028.* In addition, the median salary for a healthcare manager is $64,484, according to payscale.com.**

With this degree, you'll be in an excellent position to join a growing field.

As a Healthcare Management major, you'll learn how to develop and enhance leadership skills ... communicate effectively ... identify appropriate resources ... apply critical thinking skills in order to make informed business decisions ... and much more.

Healthcare Management

centralpenn.edu

Reach Higher

The healthcare profession is predicted to add more than 1.9 million jobs through 2028.*** That means more doctors, nurses and therapists, but also more managers. If you like leading people, tackling challenges, solving problems and getting paid to do it, then the Healthcare Management program is for you!

Healthcare managers work in a wide range of facilities:

- Hospitals
- Ambulatory surgical centers
- Medical offices
- Clinics
- Orthopedic and rehabilitation centers
- Blood banks
- Hospice homes
- Addiction treatment centers
- Urgent care centers

Courses you will take include:

- Healthcare Policies & Politics
- Healthcare Quality Management
- Human Resources
- Organizational Behavior
- Business Communications

Healthcare Management courses are exclusively offered in an online format.

* <https://www.bls.gov/OOH/management/medical-and-health-services-managers.htm>

** www.payscale.com/research/US/Job=Healthcare\_Manager/Salary

*** www.bls.gov/ooh/healthcare/home.htm

Ascend to the
Next Level
APPLY TODAY

Healthcare Management

centralpenn.edu

