Optimize Your Future

In today's digital world, IT professionals are in high demand. With an Information Technology degree, you'll have opportunities to work for major corporations, government agencies, nonprofit groups and small businesses.

As an IT major, you'll learn how to write code for various applications … program using JAVA and other languages … become experienced with SQL fundamentals … gain a deep understanding of operating systems, virtualization, systems analysis and design … and much more.

Maximize Your Potential

Information Technology

Optimize Your Future

Maximize Your Potential
APPLY TODAY

centralpenn.edu

At Central Penn, you can choose between two concentrations:

- Applications Development
- Networking and Security

Career options for Information Technology majors:

- Computer and Information Systems Managers
- Computer Systems Analysts
- Network and Computer Systems Administrators
- Network Systems and Data Communications Analysts
- Client Support Technician
- IT Policy Specialist

Courses you will be able to take include:

- Structured Programming
- Networking I & II
- Human-Computer Interaction
- Systems Analysis and Design
- Internet Programming I & II
- Virtualization

Information Technology courses are offered in the following formats:

- In-person classes during the day and evening at the Summerdale campus
- Online

Information Technology

CENTRAL PENN COLLEGE