

Ready for a Career in Healthcare?

Presenting Our New Medical Assisting Diploma Program

- 30 Credits – 24 course credits, 6 for internship
- 12 Months – 9 months of coursework, 3-month internship
- Daytime, in-person classes at the Lancaster Center

Jobs in Medical Assisting are expected to grow 19% through 2029, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

According to the High Priority Occupations List published by the PA Department of Labor and Industry, Medical Assisting positions in Lancaster County are expected to grow 20.9% through 2026.

Medical Assisting Diploma

centralpenn.edu

CENTRAL PENN
COLLEGE

A New 12-Month Diploma Program

Benefit from Our Experience
APPLY TODAY

New Medical Assisting Diploma

“Medical assistants play a critical role in delivering compassionate care to patients at physician offices and outpatient care facilities. If you’re a person who likes interacting with people and who enjoys helping others, then a career as a Medical Assistant could be extremely fulfilling for you!”

– Nikki Marhefka, Program Director, Medical Assisting

Careers in this field include:

- Certified Medical Assistant
- Medical Office Assistant
- EKG Technician
- Phlebotomy Technician
- Health Unit Clerk
- Medical Claims Examiner

Courses you will take:

- MA Clinical Education I
- MA Clinical Education II
- MA Clinical Education III
- MA Administrative Skills I
- MA Administrative Skills II
- Healthcare Insurance
- Structure, Function, & Disease of the Human Body I
- Structure, Function, & Disease of the Human Body II
- Structure, Function, & Disease of the Human Body III

Medical Assisting Diploma courses are exclusively offered in-person during the day at the Lancaster Center.

Medical Assisting Diploma

centralpenn.edu

